We have read the order of this court dated 18th November, 1996 and the statement of the Commissioner, Bangalore Mahanagar Palika, quoted therein. The present applications are filed pursuant thereto. We have also read the applications and the counter and we think that it is appropriate that the applications should be moved before the High Court which would be in a better position to decide whether the appellants should be shifted from where they are now and, if so, where.

These interlocutory applications are disposed of accordingly.
