O R D E R

1. The High Court, by the impugned order, while not entertaining the claim of the petitioner-association has granted it liberty to approach the appropriate department in the Ministry with a suitable representation.

2. We are informed that availing such liberty, the petitioner-association has already submitted a representation.

The same stands disposed of with the observation that the claims raised in the representation submitted by the petitioner-association may be decided by the appropriate authority in accordance with law and by passing a reasoned order, as early as possible.
