Permission to file the Special Leave Petition is granted.
Leave granted.

We have heard the learned Senior counsel appearing for the appellant.

The appellant is the lawyer who appeared for the party before the High Court in a writ petition.

The present appeal has been filed by him seeking to expunge the remarks made by the High Court against him in the impugned order.

The learned Senior counsel appearing for the appellant submits that what has been done by him is only an inadvertent error and there was no intention involved. It is further submitted by the learned Senior counsel that the appellant would be careful henceforth.

Taking into the consideration the aforesaid submissions, we are inclined to hold that it was an inadvertent and unintentional mistake on the part of the appellant.

In such view of the matter, the appellant should be careful henceforth. Accordingly, the observations made in the impugned order stand expunged.

The appeal stands allowed without hearing the other side as the respondents would not be aggrieved by the order passed.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
