UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

SLP(C) No.13164/2023 (It.18.16), SLP(C) No.14643/2023 (It.18.49), SLP(C) No.27480/2023 (It.18.50) & Diary No.28998/2024 (It.18.103)

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner(s) seek and are permitted to withdraw these petitions.

2. The petitions are, accordingly, dismissed as withdrawn.

IA No. 243110/2024 in SLP(C) No. 692/2024 & IA No. 243120/2024 in SLP(C) No. 15820/2024

3. The applications for deletion of respondents from the array of parties are allowed at the risk and responsibility of the petitioners. Cause title be amended accordingly.

Rest of the matters

4. The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has handed over a copy of its 4th Interim Status Report. It is pointed out that soft copies of 45 new SLPs have been received by them, containing largely similar allegations.

5. Out of these, 20 SLPs are stated to pertain to projects regarding which investigation has already been entrusted to the CBI. We, therefore, see no reason as to why the CBI should not commence investigation in relation to the averments in these 20

SLPs also. If need be, separate RCs may be registered within a week, and investigation in these cases shall commence forthwith. To that extent, we endorse the CBI's suggestion.

6. With regard to the remaining SLPs, the CBI seemingly wants to wriggle out of the responsibility entrusted by this Court by suggesting that those matters may be directed to be investigated by the Economic Offences Wings of the respective States. We strongly disapprove of the stand taken by the CBI. Instead, the CBI is directed to, without initiating any preliminary enquiry, register appropriate regular cases in respect of these remaining petitions and begin investigation forthwith. It is clarified that the CBI shall be at liberty to incorporate one or more of these petitions into an existing RC if the competent officer is of the opinion that the allegations therein may be more effectively investigated under such RC instead of a freshly registered RC.

7. If the CBI requires assistance from the local police of the respective States, especially the Economic Offences Wings, let a separate request to this effect be sent to the Director General of Police of the respective States, who in turn are directed to provide the requisite police force on temporary deputation and at the disposal of the CBI. The Director General of Police shall be obligated to provide the requisite police force, with the specified specialisation, if any, within one week from the date of receipt of the requirement from the CBI. No explanation, in this regard, shall be sent to the CBI. Even if there is any administrative impediment which is required to be brought to this Court's notice, such a submission shall be placed before this Court only after the requisite police force has been provided to the CBI. If such a prerequisite is not fulfilled, the Registry shall not entertain any such submission.

8. At this stage, we do not want to comment on the quality, depth, and effectiveness of the ongoing investigation by the CBI. All that we wish to observe, as of now, is that no one should be treated above the law, and every suspect must be dealt with in such a manner that the investigation reaches a logical conclusion at the earliest. Prolonging the investigation will lead to more agony for the homebuyers, who have already been harassed to a great extent by the builders-cum-developers, apparently in collusion and connivance with the financial institutions/banks.

9. The CBI is well advised to take into consideration every aspect of the report dated 25.04.2025 submitted by Shri Rajiv Jain, learned amicus curiae, especially the areas of investigation identified and alluded to in that report.

10. We direct a responsible officer of CBI to file an affidavit, informing this Court as to whether the areas pointed out by the learned amicus curiae have been kept in view while filing chargesheets in some of the cases, and a specific stand shall also be taken therein that these areas of inquiry are being closely taken care of in the ongoing investigations.

11. The CBI shall also, in its status report, disclose the estimated timeline within which the investigation shall be completed in respect of all the projects, including the original set of petitions as well as the new 45 petitions. This Court cannot wait for an indefinite period for the conclusion of the investigation, especially keeping in view several instances in the past where the investigation itself has taken years. If that is allowed to happen, one can very well visualise the time it would take for the subsequent trials to be over.

12. The homebuyers, the banks/financial institutions, or any builder-cum-developer shall be at liberty to submit their claims, crossclaims, suggestions, and recommendations to the learned amicus curiae for his consideration. No such application or material shall be directly entertained by this Court unless it is screened through the learned amicus curiae.

13. Learned counsel for the parties may request the learned amicus curiae to share the relevant extracts of the status report. We, however, do not intend to pass any direction in that regard, except to say that the learned amicus curiae may take a call as to whether sharing of such information at this stage will cause any impediment or adverse impact on the ongoing investigation. There is no gainsaying that if sharing of such information is likely to cause any prejudicial effect on the ongoing investigation, there would be no obligation on the learned amicus to share the same.

14. Post these matters for further hearing on 14.05.2026.
