This batch of appeals are directed against the judgment of Delhi High Court against the orders of cancellation of the discretionary quota relating to retail outlet of Petroleum etc. issued by the concerned Minister.

During the last three days, we have been hearing these appeals and judgment of this Court are being read over and over again and the same points are being re-urged. We have to examine individual cases after applying our mind to the individual facts, after laying the law in question. Since we have already heard more than twenty cases and spent more than two days, we think it appropriate to reserve the judgment in those cases, deliver the judgment in those cases and take up other matter after that judgment in those cases. If there are distinctive feature in any other case, it shall be considered while those matters are taken up.
