O R D E R

Learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the observations of the High Court regarding shortcomings in the Institution have already been rectified by the Institution and, therefore, it should be granted permission to seek approval from the AICTE for the Session 2013-2014 in the event of which admissions may be completed in August, 2013. This request obviously will have to be considered by the High Court itself where the writ petition is sub-judice.

Contd. 2..

In the aforesaid circumstance, liberty is granted to the petitioner to file a fresh application before the High Court bringing additional facts to the notice of the court and in case such an application is filed it is for the High Court to appreciate this position. Insofar as the special leave petition against the impugned order is concerned, the said order on the facts existing on the said date, does not require any interference.

Hence, this special leave petition is dismissed.
