O R D E R

Heard.

We see no reason to interfere with the impugned order. The special leave petition is dismissed.

Mr. Ranjit Kumar, learned senior counsel, however, submits that one of the petitioners being a female, her request for exemption from personal appearance before the trial court may be directed to be considered keeping in view the nature of allegations levelled against her especially when the same tend to show her character in poor light.

No application appears to have been moved so far by the said petitioner seeking exemption. In the circumstances, all that we can say is that if any such application is made, the same may be considered by the Magistrate in accordance with law.
