Leave is granted.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

Both the courts below have concurrently found that the respondent is the land lady within the meaning of the M.P. Accommodation Control Act, 1961 and has established her personal need to justify an order of eviction of the appellants from the premises. We find no valid reason to interfere in the order impugned in this appeal. The appeal is accordingly dismissed.

However, having regard to the circumstances of the case, time is granted to the appellants for vacating the premises till March 31, 2001 on their furnishing a usual undertaking within two weeks from today.
