moved for variation of the interim order. It is stated that in similar cases this Court earlier passed interim order. The effect and/or relevance of the said orders shall be considered by the High Court. We are not expressing any opinion in that regard. We request the High Court to deal with the application for variation of the interim order if filed as early as possible, at the most within a period of 10 days from the date of the filing of the application.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of.
