UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Issue notice.

Some of the respondents have entered appearance through their counsel by filing caveats.

Counsel appearing for the caveators accept notice and seek time to file counter affidavits. Let counter affidavits on behalf of respondents be filed within four weeks. Rejoinder affidavit, if necessary, may be filed within four weeks thereafter. Additional documents, if any, may be filed within the same time.

Notice shall issue to the unrepresented respondents. Dasti, in addition, is permitted.

Interim relief as prayed for in the petitions is declined. However, all the respondents - sugar mills shall continue to maintain a complete account of molasses transferred to their own distillery for captive use and shall file affidavits in this Court undertaking to make payment of the entire amount as may be due to the State, in case they fail in these petitions. The requisite undertaking shall be filed within four weeks from today. The amount so due by the sugar mills shall be paid within 30 days from the date of decision in these petitions along with interest at the rate as may be directed by this Court.

We further clarify that it will be open to the State to continue to raise demands against the sugar mills towards administrative charges for the period when the writ petitions were pending in the High Court as well as for the future period till these petitions are disposed of and communicate the same to the Mill concerned. However, no coercive steps shall be taken to recover these amounts.

:4:

Further direction with regard to refund of any amount pursuant to the impugned judgment shall also remain stayed. It goes without saying that if the State fails in these petitions, it may also be liable to pay interest on the refunds
as may be directed by this Court.
