UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere in this petition in the exercise of our discretion under Article 136 of the Constitution. The learned Counsel for the petitioner complains that the petitioner's Advocate was not heard by the High Court and the order was passed on the assumption that no advocate appeared on behalf of the petitioner....2/--2-

He further contends that the case of the petitioner did not stand on the same footing as that of other claimants where lands were acquired. If that is so, it is for the petitioner to move an appropriate application before the High Court and seek appropriate relief. We wish to express no opinion in the matter.

The Special Leave Petition is dismissed.
