O R D E R

Mr.Kapil Chodhary, advocate, submits that the appellants have taken away all the papers and have also obtained no objection certificate from the advocate-on-record to engage some other counsel and that was about a year back. In this view, counsel states that he has neither any paper nor any instruction from the appellants. We may note that no other counsel has put in appearance and also that no application for discharge has been filed. The request for adjournment is declined. The appeal is dismissed for non prosecution.
