Delay condoned.

From the list of dates we come across that a number of criminal cases have been charge-sheeted against the respondent. We are not sure, as to how much of them are pending now. If those case are pending or there are convictions to his credit this matter perhaps calls for cancellation of the bail. It is open to the State for cancellation of bail if there are good grounds for such. We dispose of this SLP without prejudice to the right of the State in moving for the same.
