the two Readers which have been noticed in paragraph 5 of the judgment, are not in Orthodontics but in other discipline. However, this fact is not admitted by the other side.

Be that as it may, we are not inclined to interfere in the present petition primarily for the reason that it is an interim order and the writ petition itself has been admitted for hearing.

However, we grant specific liberty to the petitioner to mention the matter before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice of the Bombay High Court for early disposal of the writ petition itself as well as liberty is granted to move for reviewing the interim order if the above contention raised before us is ultimately found to be incorrect by the High Court itself.

With the above direction, the special leave petition is disposed of.
