3. All the above-stated cases are, accordingly, on consent, ordered to be transferred to the Court(s) of competent jurisdiction at Patiala House Courts, Delhi. Learned Principal District Judge at Patiala House Courts will entrust the cases to the respective courts.

4. It has been pointed out, and rightly so, that in some of the transferred cases, the issue of pecuniary jurisdiction may arise. In such context, we invoke this Court's powers under Article 142 of the Constitution of India and direct that once the parties move an application to this effect before the Principal District Judge, the Patiala House Courts, New Delhi shall have jurisdiction to entertain and decide the transferred cases, irrespective of the prescribed pecuniary jurisdiction.

5. The Transfer Petitions are, accordingly, disposed of in the above terms.
