For Respondent (s)

UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

The notice has been served in the normal course to the respondent accused. He has not chosen to appear either personally or through a counsel. Since this is a criminal matter final decision in the petition may have serious consequences on the respondent, therefore, we think it appropriate that the respondent should be either personally present or through an Advocate. Therefore, we issue bailable warrant to secure the presence of the respondent before this Court. Bail bonds shall be furnished to the satisfaction of the trial court.
