have been received from the University of Delhi and Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE). Some of the key answers now provided by the University of Delhi and CBSE match with the key answers as were fed by the petitioner University.

However, there are few questions on which there is unanimity of answers between the University of Delhi and CBSE but the key answers of the petitioner University are different. There are also some answers where there is no unanimity between the University of Delhi and the CBSE. Photocopies of reports of CBSE and the University of Delhi shall be supplied to learned counsel for the parties during the course of the day.

Learned counsel for the University would tabulate the answers as provided in these reports and the key answers of the University in a statement form.

List tomorrow, the 24th August, 2005.
