O R D E R

After arguing for sometime, the learned counsel for the petitioner sought permission to withdraw this petition on the ground that a substantial question of law to the effect that the suit is hit by Section 4 of Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 was raised and urged, but, the High Court did not consider the same and on that account he wants to move the High Court in review.

Permission is granted.

In the light of what is stated above, the special leave petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
