Learned counsel submits that in Rajasthan High Court criminal appeals would be boarded for hearing before a Division Bench only after several years. We have noticed in another case last month that the position in Rajasthan High Court has improved very much in regard to the criminal appeals to be heard by Division Bench. Therefore it is open to the petitioners to await their chance. For any technical reason the appeal is not boarded within a reasonable time it is open to the petitioners to make a request before the High Court for an early hearing. With these observations the SLP is disposed of.
