UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. This petition arises from the order passed by the High Court for the State of Telangana dated 18.3.2026 in Civil Revision Petition No. 832 of 2026 by which the revision petition preferred by the petitioner herein seeking to challenge the order passed by the Principal Special Court in the Cadre of District Judge for Trial and Disposal of Commercial Disputes, City Civil Court at Hyderabad dated 12.3.2026 in I.A. No. 360 of 2026 in C.O.P.No. 43 of 2026 came to be disposed of denying enlargement of time to file counter.
2. We need not delve much into the facts of this case as we intend to dispose of this petition by issuing appropriate directions.
3. Our order dated 25.3.2026 is very clear. The same reads thus:-

"1. Mr. Ananga Bhattacharyya, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner drawing attention to the paragraph 7 of the impugned order, submits that under three heads a permission to make payments have been provided. These are (i) Salary to the employees of the partnership firm; (ii) Supplier dues; and

(iii) Other essential payments.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that head nos.2 & 3 are open ended figures and it will cause serious prejudice, if the order with regard to head nos.2 & 3 are not stayed.

3. In view of the above, we make the following order:-

"1. Issue notice to the respondent(s), returnable on 01st April, 2026.

2. Till further orders, there shall be stay of operation of the impugned order dated 18.03.2026 passed by the High Court for The State of Telangana at Hyderabad, with regard to the disbursement for suppliers dues and other essential payments.

3. Insofar as the employees salary is concerned, the respondent(s) may make disbursement."

4. The position today is that Section 9 petition preferred under the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 (for short, the Act, 1996) is pending in the Court of the District Judge for Trial and Disposal of Commercial Disputes, City Civil Court at Hyderabad.

5. We want the Commercial Court to now proceed with the hearing of Section 9 petition.

6. We take notice of the fact that in the Section 9 petition the following reliefs have been prayed for:-

"1. By directing the respondent NO.2 to remove No-Debit in respect of the Current account No. 50200027478256 of the Partnership Firm "Concerts Now" maintained by it and permit the Petitioner to operate the said account through online for the purpose of making, vendor payments, statutory dues, employee salaries, etc.,

2. Pass an order of ad-interim injunction restraining the Respondent No.1 from conducting similar line of business under the name and style of "concepts & Events" similar to the that of the Partnership firm "Concerts Now".

3. Pass an order of ad-interim injunction restraining the Respondents jointly and severally from interfering with the banking transactions and with the affairs of the Partnership Firm Concerts Now.

4. Restrain the 1st Respondent from making / spreading false propaganda against the Petitioner and the Partnership Firm in any manner.

5. Award Costs of the present case.

6. To pass other such order/s or direction/s as deemed fit and proper in the present circumstances of the case & in the best interest of justice & equity."

7. Since the business operations were involved, the Trial Court shall take the counter affidavit on record and pass an appropriate order after proper verification of the claims as regards the salary of the employees, the statutory dues and the vendor payments.

8. Let the Section 9 petition be disposed of within a period of one week from today.

9. The Trial Court shall decide the Section 9 petition without being influenced in any manner by any of the observations made by the High Court or this Court.

10. In the aforesaid, the Special Leave Petition stands disposed of.

11. Pending application(s), if any, stands disposed of.
