O R D E R

Learned counsel appearing for the State submits that the petitioners are co-operating in the investigation, however, some recoveries are still to be effected.

In view of the above, we direct the petitioners to fully co-operate with the investigating agencies and get the articles recovered within two weeks from today. In the event of compliance with the aforesaid directions, the application for anticipatory bail shall stand disposed of to the satisfaction of the arresting officer. The petitioners shall not leave the State of Punjab without leave of the Chief Judicial Magistrate concerned and will fully co-operate in further investigation.

With these observations, the special leave petition stands disposed of.
