SLP(C) No.13639/2000 etc. the special leave petitions are dismissed, however, learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are staying in the disputed quarters since more than 30 years. Therefore, in any case sufficient time may be given to him for vacating the same. On this ground, we have heard the learned counsel for the respondents. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, particularly the stand taken by the Corporation of disposal of quarters in favour of its employees who are occupying the same, as prayed for, time to vacate is granted till the end of academic year 2001, i.e. up to 30th April, 2001 on their furnishing the usual undertaking to hand over peaceful and vacant possession of the premises on or before the said date and to pay regularly the licence fee as payable by the employee of the Corporation (not market or penal rent). However, this benefit would be given to those petitioners who file usual undertaking to vacate the premises before this Court and send a copy thereof to the Municipal Commissioner or the Delhi Jal Board within four weeks from today.
