Leave granted.

Appellants are two ladies arraigned in a case along with several other persons. They filed an application for anticipatory bail but the same was not granted by the Sessions Judge and the High Court. After perusing the allegations in general and particularly those made against these appellants we are inclined to exercise our discretion in granting the pre-arrest bail order in their favour, on the peculiar facts and circumstances of this case. We, therefore, direct that appellants, in the event of they being arrested, shall be released on bail on each of them executing a bond with two solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the arresting officer. We impose a condition that they shall report to the investigating officer for interrogation as and when so directed.

This appeal is disposed of accordingly.
