Leave granted.

Appellant is an unmarried girl. She is a student. She claims to have secured gold medal in M.A. degree. She is arraigned along with members of her family for offences under Sections 406, 498A and 506 of the Indian Penal Code and allied offences on a complaint made by the wife of her brother. Though she moved for anticipatory bail the same was not granted.

On a conspectus of the facts alleged we are of the view that the discretion vested under Section 438 of the Criminal Procedure Code can be exercised in her favour. We, accordingly, direct that the appellant, if arrested, shall be released on bail on her executing a bond with two solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the arresting officer. We impose a condition that she shall report to the investigating officer for interrogation as and when so directed.

This appeal is disposed of accordingly.
