Though we are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order we permit the petitioners to surrender before the court concerned and apply for bail. If any such application is made the magistrate shall release him on bail if the petitioner is prepared to execute a bond with two solvent sureties to the satisfaction of the said court on the following further conditions:

1. He shall report to the investigating officer at such time and place as is directed for the purpose of interrogation.

2. He shall report to the investigating officer on any other occasion which is found necessary.

3. He shall not tamper with the evidence including influencing the witnesses.

With the above observation, SLP is disposed of.
