O R D E R

Permission to file SLP is granted.

By the impugned order PW-1 to PW-4 are to be summoned for further cross-examination by the accused. Learned counsel for the petitioner challenges the propriety and legality of this order and submits that it would delay the proceedings before the trial court. We are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order as these witnesses are to be cross examined only by putting some additional questions. In order to avoid delay, we direct that these witnesses be cross examined further, as directed, within a period of one month. The witnesses shall appear in court pursuant to the summons, if any, issued to them and the trial Magistrate shall complete the proceedings within a period of two months. All expenses for further cross-examination shall be borne by the accused.

The SLP is disposed of accordingly.
