UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

1. Indulgently, we had accepted the prayer made by the Trial Court and granted time for completing the trial in terms of our judgment dated 15.07.2024. Further extension was granted on 11.08.2025 clarifying as under:

"1. Perused the letter dated 10.07.2025 of Additional Sessions Judge, Nashik seeking extension of time to conclude the trial in MCOC Case No. 03/2019.

2. Taking into consideration the facts referred to in the letter placed before us, time to conclude the trial is extended by six months.

3. IA No. 184354/2025 is allowed. Consequently, the miscellaneous application stands disposed of."

2. Even thereafter, on 27.01.2026, we have passed the following order :

"1. In terms of communication dated 07.01.2026 received from the concerned judicial officer, High Court, Appellate Side, Bombay, Trial Court to positively conclude the trial within a period of eight weeks from today in terms of order dated 11.08.2025.

2. It is made clear that no further time shall be extended.

3. M.A. No. 98/2026 stands disposed of."

3. Regretfully, the trial is not complete. The concerned Court has not even bothered to place on record the daily orders (zimni orders). Even the High Court, in a mechanical manner, forwarded the communication as sent by the concerned Court seeking extension of time.

4. The least that was expected of the High Court Administration was: to examine the matter; counsel of the concerned Judicial Officer; and/or to monitor the matter, ensuring compliance with the order passed by this Court.

5. Be that as it may, indulgently, though reluctantly, by way of last extension, we extend the time for conclusion of the trial within a period of three months from today.

6. We direct the High Court Administration to ensure compliance of the order.
7. The Registrar (Judicial) shall communicate this order to all concerned forthwith.
8. The present Miscellaneous Application is allowed.
9. Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
