The SLP is dismissed for the reasons recorded in the Judgment dated 21st September, 2000 in SLP(C) No.13639/2000 etc. However, at the request of learned counsel for the petitioner and after hearing learned counsel for the respondent the following order is passed.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is staying in the disputed quarters since more than 30 years. Therefore, in any case sufficient time may be given to them for vacating the same. On this ground, we have heard the learned counsel for the respondents. Considering the facts and the circumstances of the case, particularly the stand taken by the Corporation for disposal of quarters in favour of its employees who are occupying the same as prayed for, time to vacate is granted till the end of the academic year 2001, i.e. up to 30th April 2001 on their furnishing the usual undertaking to hand over peaceful and vacant possession of the premises on or before the said date and to pay regularly the license fee as payable by the employees of the Corporation (not market or penal rent). However, this benefit would be given to those petitioners who file usual undertaking to vacate the premises to the Municipal Commissioner or the Delhi Jal Board within four weeks from today.
