The appellant stands convicted by the Trial Court in Sessions Trial No.400019/2008 for the offences under Sections 323/34, 304 Part II, 506 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (for short 'IPC').

We have heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties.

Though the appellant was charged for the offence punishable under Section 302 of the IPC, conviction has been rendered for the major offence, punishable under Section 304 Part II of the IPC.

we have been informed that the sentence of the co-accused has been suspended. The appeal is of the year 2025.

Considering the above, we are inclined to set aside the impugned order, and suspend the sentence of the appellant, during the pendency of his appeal before the High Court.

Accordingly, the impugned order stands set aside, the sentence of the appellant is suspended and he is granted bail, during the pendency of his appeal before the High Court, on terms and conditions to the satisfaction of the concerned Trial Court.

The appeal stands allowed, accordingly.
