The only grievance of the petitioners is that by reason of the impugned order, the High Court considered the question as to whether prayer (a) should be granted or not. No consideration is said to have been made for prayer (b).                      Learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioners states that the said prayer was also pressed before the High Court but unless anything more is shown, we have to accept the Judges' record. It will be open to the petitioner to file an appropriate application before the High Court in this behalf. The Special Leave Petition is dismissed accordingly.
