Inasmuch as the course for which the respondents sought for admission for the year 1995-1996, the learned counsel for the respondents is not in a position to state whether they have been admitted pursuant to the order made by the High Court. In the circumstances no useful purpose will be served by keeping this matter pending and examining the various questions raised in this case as the period for which the admission is sought is already over. Therefore, it is unnecessary to interfere with the order made by the High Court as this appeal has become infructuous. The appeal is disposed of as having become infructuous.
