UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere with the impugned order. The special leave petition is dismissed. It was submitted that the observations made by the High Court in its impugned order may prejudice the case of the petitioner. Needless to say that the observations, if any, made in the impugned order are made for the purposes of disposing of the matter before the High Court. The Trial Court will dispose of the suit on own its merits and will not be influenced by such observations.
