Learned counsel for the respondent-State submits that at present in all three chargesheets are submitted against the present petitioner. In this view of the matter this petition would not survive.

However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that instead of proceeding against the petitioner in three different courts, the respondent be directed to proceed with the said cases before Special Judge in any one district. In our view, no such direction can be given in the present petition. However, it is open to the petitioner to move the appropriate court for such relief. Meantime, for a period of four weeks, it is directed that the respondents would not seek any police custody of the petitioner for the offences alleged in the three FIRs.

The SLP stands disposed of accordingly.
