O R D E R

Since the present special leave petition is against the order passed in an interim application, we are not inclined to interfere with the same. The special leave petition is dismissed. Inasmuch as the main writ petition is still pending before the High Court, we request the High Court to dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible, but not later than three months. It is made clear that any observation made by the High Court while disposing of the interim application shall only be confined to the disposal of the said application.
