O R D E R

List as notified.

The learned counsel for the landlord-respondent, present on caveat, states that possession over the suit property has been delivered to the landlord yesterday. In such circumstance, the learned counsel for the petitioner prays for status quo as to the property being maintained as he submits that the property is likely to be demolished by the respondent. In view of that statement, we direct that status quo as to the property, as obtaining today, shall be maintained till the matter comes up for hearing on admission.
