When this appeal was admitted, it was recorded that it had been stated on behalf of the appellant that the respondents had accepted the stand of the appellant that electrical resistance alloy was not stainless steel. Although four years and more have passed and the matter has been adjourned in the past to enable the respondents to obtain instructions in regard to the assessments for subsequent years, a further adjournment on the ground of lack of instructions is sought.

Adjourned beyond the Holi vacation. No further adjournment on this ground will be available.
