CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPEAL NO. 6036 OF 2001

Amrulla Talukdar Khan

...Appellant(s)

Versus

Inamulla Roshanali Zamindar & Ors. ...Respondent(s)

O R D E R

On 26th August, 2003, this Court passed the following order:

"Learned counsel for the respondents states that the parties have settled the dispute out of the court and the appellant has surrendered the physical possession of the premises in dispute.

In this view, there may not be any necessity to decide the appeal on merits. The learned counsel further submitted that this appeal may be taken up next week so that the affidavit to this effect may be filed. Learned counsel for the appellant wants to get instructions from the appellant in this regard.

List in the next week."

The learned counsel for the parties submitted that, as indicated in the order afore-mentioned, the parties have settled the dispute out of the court and the terms of the settlement are indicated in the affidavit sworn to by the appellant, namely, Amrulla Talukdar Khan. The learned counsel for the appellant seeks permission to place the original affidavit on record, copy of which is already filed before the Court. Permission is granted and let the original affidavit be placed on record. In the light of the settlement as evidenced in the affidavit, nothing more is required to be done in this appeal. The appeal is, accordingly, disposed of as settled between the parties in the light of the affidavit placed on record.

No costs.
