O R D E R

Ms. Rachana Joshi Issar, learned amicus, states, on the basis of telephone instructions, that the petitioner has actually been released in April, 2009 after undergoing the entire period of imprisonment.

In view of the statement of learned amicus, we dispose of this review petition as having become infructuous.

However, on the request of the learned amicus and in the interest of justice, we direct the Registry to make an enquiry from Central Prison, Nasik Road, Maharashtra and verify, if the information given to the learned amicus, is correct.

In case, the information given to the learned amicus is found to be incorrect, the office will submit a report and the matter will be brought to the notice of the Bench for further directions.
