It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioners that an application for additional evidence had been made before the High Court and the said application was to be heard at the time of final hearing as directed on 3rd September, 2012.

In spite of the above position, the application for additional evidence had not been considered by the High Court.

Under the circumstances, the petitioners seek leave to withdraw this petition so as to approach the appropriate forum so that the contents of the application can be considered.

Permission is granted.
