UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We are not inclined to interfere in the matter. However, it is clarified that in case the petitioner choses to avail of any other alternative remedy, the observations, if any, made by the High Court on the merits of the matter which may adversely affect the petitioner, would not come in his way and the authority concerned shall be at liberty to decide the matter on merits independently.

The Special Leave Petition is dismissed with the observation made above.
