Delay condoned.

Apprehension of the Insurance Company in this special leave petition is that the Tribunal has treated the award passed under Sec.163-A of the Motor vehicles Act 1988 only as an interim measure and that the Tribunal may proceed to pass another award over and above the amount awarded under the aforesaid section. We dismiss this special leave petition without prejudice to the right of the petitioner-Insurance Company to challenge any such award which might be passed as feared by the petitioner.
