UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

None appears for the petitioners. However, there is a delay of 117 days in filing the special leave petition which has not been explained. Besides this, we find no substance in this special leave petition as the High Court has merely directed the petitioners to consider the case of the respondents for regularization, which could not be held to be prejudicial to the petitioner in any manner so as to rush to this Court. We are, therefore, not inclined to entertain this special leave petition. The special leave petition is, therefore, dismissed on merit, delay as also for non-appearance.
