O R D E R

Delay condoned.

These special leave petitions have been filed against an interim order passed by the High Court in second appeal which is still pending before the High Court. We are not inclined to interfere therewith. However, in the facts and circumstances of the case, we request the High Court to dispose of the second appeal as expeditiously as possible, in any event, within six months from the date of communication of this order.

The special leave petitions are dismissed with the aforementioned observation.
