Heard Mr. P.N. Mishra appearing for the petitioner and Mr. P.Chidambaram for the respondents.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, and having examined the impugned order of the High Court, we see no justification for our interference with the impugned order of the High Court. The SLP stands dismissed. Mr. Mishra vehemently contended that the observation of the High Court while disposing of the revision may not weigh with the learned Trial Judge. Mr. Chidambaram says that suit has already been dismissed without any influence. We need not observe any opinion thereon.
