It appears that on 11th March, 2002, this Court in its order directed the petitioner as also respondent No.3 to make available a sum of Rupees One Lac each to the respondent No.1, though such payment was without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties.
When the matter was taken up today, we have been informed that the matter is already listed before the
...2/-

National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission on 29th April, 2002. Let the matter be dealt with by the National Commission in accordance with law upon affording an opportunity of hearing to both the parties. The deposit, as directed by this Court earlier, shall, however, abide by the result of the order of the National Commission. The issue, as regards the payment of interest, shall also be dealt with by the National Commission.

The special leave petition shall stand disposed of accordingly at the stage of admission itself. No costs.
