The delay of 756 days was explained on the ground that they decided to file an SLP after coming to know that Supreme Court in a similar case has enhanced the compensation amount. This is hardly an explanation for the long delay involved. Learned counsel submitted that petitioners would be advised to approach the Railway Board for necessary relief. For facilitating the said course of action he requests for permission of this Court to withdraw this SLP. It is accordingly dismissed as withdrawn.
