UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

We find that the SLPs are filed against the following interim direction made while admitting the writ petition for hearing:

"In the meanwhile, status quo with respect to the possession of the suit property shall be maintained."

It is open to the petitioners to approach the High Court for modification of the interim order or for early hearing. We, therefore, find no reason to interfere. The special leave petitions are dismissed.
