Badi Chinna Rao

Appellant (s)

versus

State of A.P. Respondent (s)

O R D E R

Leave granted.

The appellant has been found guilty of offence of cheating and one month's sentence has been imposed. The allegations against him are that he refused to marry the girl to whom he had promised. Later it seems that marriage between them has taken place. It is admitted that now they are living as husband and wife. Having regard to these facts, the prayer for compounding of offence is allowed and the appeal is disposed of accordingly. The bail bond shall stand discharged.
