Exemption from filing O.T. is allowed.
Issue notice. Respondent is in caveat and accepts notice.

Since an order of acquittal has been set aside and a conviction has been recorded and further an application for compounding has been filed even though some of the offences
for which conviction is maintained are not compoundable, it would be meet and proper to dispose of the matter finally.
Petitioner No. 1 be released on bail to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Egmore.

Put up this matter for final disposal on a non-miscellaneous day in March, 2002.
