UPON hearing counsel the Court made the following

O R D E R

Having regard to the facts and circumstances, we do not find it to be a fit case for interference. The special leave petition is dismissed accordingly.

However, if the petitioner surrenders before the Court concerned within two weeks from today and applies for regular bail, he will not be arrested till his bail application is disposed of by the Court concerned. It goes without saying that we have not expressed any opinion on the merits of the bail application, which the petitioner proposes to file. As and when the same is filed, it will be considered on its own merits.
